VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

IN HALIFAX COUNTY, N. C.

Lying on Little Fishing Creek, fifteen miles west of Enfield.

The farm contains 2,800 ACRES, about 800 cleared; the remainder in original growth, of oak, hickory and pine. 500 Acres of the cleared land is well adapted to the growth of COTTON. The remainder is good grain land.

IMPROVEMENTS,

An eight room dwelling, gin-house, Cotton press, barns, stables, tobacco barns, cabins, and MILL, with three sets of runners.

The neighborhood is good, and the location very healthy. There are two schools and three churches, in a short distance of the farm.

The above tract of land will be sold for less than ten dollars per acre.

I will take pleasure in showing the land, or answering any inquiries that may be addressed to me.

ASSETS $4,000,000. ASSETS $4,000,000.

SEPT. 1st. 1866.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Wesky, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. OXR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary, Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Friday Evening, October 19, 1866.

The Election.

We subjoin such returns as have reached us up to the hour of going to press.

The vote, as thus far indicated, is a small one, but it is most emphatic and decisive. Gov. Worth is elected by an overwhelming majority, most flattering to him as a faithful public servant and most honorable to the character of the State. We have abundant evidence that, notwithstanding Gen. Dockery's published declinature of a nomination, he was held up as a candidate in every part of the State by the advocates of the Howard amendment, and that the strongest efforts have been made, in a covert manner, to give him a large vote and elect him if possible. Tickets were scattered broadcast over the State, and the Newbern Times intimates that it was paid for printing them,—from which it may be legitimately inferred that a fund for electioneering purposes was in existence. In this city, we know, strong and active efforts were made to reduce Gov. Worth's vote,—with what success let the returns exhibit. Raleigh, heretofore the centre of the Holden influence, has spoken out "unmistakably" in opposition to Radicalism.

In view of all the facts, we are warranted in saying that the issue was strictly defined between Gov. Worth and anti-Howard amendment and Dockery and Howard amendment.—The result is evidently all that the friends of Constitutional Union can desire. North Carolina has declared, as we knew she would, that if she is to be degraded, she will not be a party to her own humiliation.

The vote at High Point,—the only precinct abroad, as far as ascertained, where Gen. Dockery has obtained a larger vote than Gov. Worth,—confirms the suspicion, heretofore generally entertained, of the active existence of the "Red String" and other secret organizations in the State,—societies which we believe to be treasonable to the Constitution and prejudicial to the quiet and peace of the State. It would be well for the grand juries to look into this matter.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Wake County: All but five precincts officially heard from, foot up as follows: Senate, Jones 535, Bledsoe 511; Commons, Russ 744, Perry 652, Rogers 587, Overby 501, Banks 189.—Messrs. Russ, Perry and Rogers elected to the Commons,—all anti-Howard amendment. The contest is very close in the Senate between Messrs. Bledsoe and Jones, with the chances rather in favor of the former. Both of them are committed against the Howard amendment.

Carteret Co.: Beaufort—Senate, Koonce 95, Bell 17. Morehead—Senate, Koonce 30, Bell 6. Commons, Perry 28, Davis 7.

Craven Co.: Newbern—Senate, Manly 130, scattering 6. Commons, Chadwick 114, Latham 95, scattering 10. Small vote in the County.

Halifax Co.: M. L. Wiggins elected to the Senate, and D. C. Clark and W. A. Daniel to the Commons—all Conservatives.

Lenoir Co.:—Kinston,—Senate, Coward 187, Speight 118; Commons, Bright 139, Sutton 107. Mosely Hall,—Senate, Coward 42, Speight 38; Commons, Bright 58, Sutton 50. Contentnea Neck,—Senate, Coward 49, Speight 1; Commons, Bright 47, Sutton 2.

Duplin Co.:—Magnolia,—Senate, Kelly 42, Ward 27; Commons, Kenan 74, Smith 35, Maxwell 20.

Guilford Co.:—High Point,—Adams 50, Harriss, 137.

Cabarrus Co.: Concord—Marshall 116, Furr 60. Commons, Long 108, Means 52.

Rowan Co.: Salisbury—Senate, Shober 76 majority. Foard and Crawford elected to the Commons—both Conservatives.

Orange Co.: Hillsboro—Senate, Berry 189, Jones 129, Vickers 17. Commons, Umsted 183, Lyon 132, Guess 129, Watson 87, Hopkins 64.

Mecklenburg.—J. H. Wilson, Esq., elected to the Senate. J. M. Hutchison and R. D. Whitley elected to the Commons. Conservatives all.

Latest.

Just as we are going to press, we have the following, by telegraph:

ORANGE COUNTY: Worth 916, Dockery 37.

Senate: Berry 493, Jones 485, Vickers 159.—Berry elected.

Commons: Umsted 633, Guess 451, Hopkins 334, Watson 318, Lyon 308. Umsted and Guess elected.

All of the right stripe.

Alamance—Worth, 563, Dockery 130.

Senate: McAden 405, Boyd 458, Roney 240, Pennix 198. McAden and Boyd, Conservatives, elected.

Alamance and Randolph constitute a Senatorial District. Robins, Conservative, doubtless elected.

The Agricultural Bureau at Washington estimates the cotton crop, for 1866, at 1,835,438 bales. This is above the usual estimate.

Consolidation of Railroads.

By some strange misconception of the account we saw of the voting of the stockholders of the Va. and Tenn. R. R. at Lynchburg, we, a few days ago, erroneously stated that the plan of consolidation had been defeated by the State vote, and that the private stockholders were in favor of it. We are glad to be corrected in several quarters.

The fact is, the State vote was cast all the time for consolidation, no doubt under the direction of Gov. Pierpont, while the individual stock went largely against consolidation.

Our cotemporary, the Newbern Commercial, we are pleased to see, gives us the status of opinion in that quarter on the subject of consolidation, as follows:

"In this direction the opinion is that the trains should be consolidated but not the companies. The necessity of the latter does not begin to appear."

This accords precisely with our opinion. We shall always oppose any scheme in the manage ment of the railroads of this State, which practically obliges farmers, miners, manufacturers or merchants to patronize particular roads or particular markets. The markets of the world must be thrown open to our people; but if any arrangement can be adopted by which our own railroads and State towns and seaports can be benefitted, by offering equal or superior claims to freight and trade, we should of course favor those claims. The consolidation of the trains, and not the R. R. Companies, is what the public everywhere desire, so that a loaded freight train, starting at Morganton, or Charlotte, or any other point in the State, can reach its destination before being opened or broken up.—Such an arrangement is every way desirable, and should be effected by the various roads, as a matter of mutual benefit to themselves and to the public.

From the Greensboro Patriot.

EDITOR OF THE PATRIOT:—More in compliance with the wishes of some of my friends, than from any conviction of the importance of the matter, I wish to explain my connexion with a political meeting which was held at Deep River Meeting House, on the 25th. of 8th. mo. (Aug.) last.

I did not attend said meeting with the expectation of participating in its proceedings, as I did not know the object for which it was called. Though requested, declined to act as its chairman, but being nominated on the committee on Resolutions, consented to serve.

I opposed, both by my voice and my vote, the resolution, which in effect, asserts that justice is not impartially administered in this State, because I did not know of any facts, and had heard of none from a reliable source which warranted distrust in our civil officers. And, now, after having taken some pains to arrive at the truth, I have no reason to believe that the Governor of the State has not acted promptly and impartially on all petitions referred to him by the United States' authorities.

With the selection or appointment of the delegates from said meeting to the Philadelphia (Sept.) Convention I had nothing to do; but as there seems to be a feeling that those who participated in the meeting are responsible for the action of its delegate, I hereby disclaim such responsibility. On the contrary, if his speeches are correctly reported in the public papers, I very much disapprove of them, as I know of no acts of oppression and violence towards Union men in this State which at all justify such language.

A few members of the Society of Friends, beside myself, were at this meeting, and though it has been said that our Society particularly has been persecuted since the war, every member of it who voted at all, voted against the resolution reflecting on the civil officers of the State.

While I state these things in behalf of truth and justice, let it also be understood that I have no apology to make for my participation (such as it was) in said meeting, and that, in my opinion, to speak of such men as were there gathered as traitors, is, to say the least, in bad taste.

NEREUS MENDENHALL.

We publish the above as a matter of justice to Friend Mendenhall. We are glad that he has no reason to believe that Gov. Worth has not acted promptly and impartially towards "so-called" Union men. Nay more, we ask him if he has not good and sufficient reasons to believe that Gov. Worth has exerted himself to have simple justice done to all classes of our citizens, without regard to their political opinions, and that he has gone as far to protect men claiming to be par excellence Union men as he has other equally good Union men, who make no pretence about it? Dr. Mendenhall knows Jonathan Worth too well to think or believe otherwise.

We regret that Dr. Mendenhall attended the Deep River Meeting. He participated in its proceedings and will be held responsible by some for the acts of the meeting. That was one time when a good man and a good Quaker was caught in bad company; a misfortune, however, which has befallen other good men before him.

The Doctor, like any other good citizen, dislikes to be called a "traitor," but there is no word more common on the lips of his Deep River associates than that, when they speak of as good and better men in the State, who differ with them in opinion. If we do not forget, we said that the endorsers of the resolutions of that meeting were "traitors to the Constitution and the Union." We think so still, in the sense we used that term. They endorsed the Howard amendment and Radical doctrines, which we hold to be hostile both to the Constitution and the Union.

Wake County.

Wake has spoken out emphatically against the Howard amendment. All of the gentlemen elected are unequivocally committed against it. Dr. Banks, who was the Standard candidate and the only one in the field whose position was not above suspicion, is nowhere in the race. It will be remembered that, one year ago, Wake gave Mr. Holden about fourteen hundred majority. Gov. Worth now carries the County handsomely.

The Raleigh Sentinel regards W. H. Willard, Esq., a public benefactor, for his efforts in inaugurating a factory in that city for the manufacture of colored cotton goods.

And so he is, such men deserve great praise, and ought to be highly valued by a community. —Danville Times.

Newbern.

If we recollect aright, there were just six delegates from Newbern to the squad "Convention," which assembled in the back room of the Standard office and nominated Gen. Dockery for Governor. Gen. Dockery received just six votes in Newbern, from which it is but reasonable to infer that the voters and the delegates are identical! Let us see: There were Thomas, Menninger, Lehman and Carpenter, and——really the other two must excuse us if, oblivious of their claims to fame and glory, we have forgotten their names. The labors of these gentlemen do not seem to have been appreciated at home.

——In what a pretty fix
Do we find the great, immortal six!

But it just occurs to us: One of the delegates must have been absent, at the time of the election; otherwise, where was our friend Vestal?

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The people of the South are poor and in debt, but their condition is not hopeless. We all believe that this region is the most desirable, by nature, in the world. What is wanting now is simply a wise and courageous enterprise. We are in the condition of a man who is in debt, but has a treasure hid in his fields, and which cannot be reached except at considerable expense.

The existing debt, say, is five thousand dollars. It will take twenty-five hundred more to reach the treasure and render it available. This latter is worth a million in cash. Now what is to be done? The debtor has no money and no ways for raising it but two, and these are to sell half his place or mortgage all.

Will he be wise to refuse either plan? He'll be ruined and ultimately sold out if he don't pursue one of these courses. If he resorts to either of these, and fails to get the treasure, he will only arrive at the place whither he will go any way. But the treasure is there and he knows it. At a certain point he'll reach it, and yet he considers himself too poor to dig for it. What an absurdity!

The obvious course of the South is to push forward her works of internal improvement, and bring all her rich soils, fine pastures and exhaustless mines near to market.

We want an immense immigration of intelligent laborers; but the men we look for have been accustomed to a different system of cultivation from that heretofore pursued at the South. They have cultivated small farms, and made every lick tell and every edge cut. They are what we call truck farmers, and they have been in the habit of selling every surplus potatoe, cabbage, apple and berry. They must be near to market; and if we will build railroads all over our region it will soon be planted with thrifty laborers as thick as black-berries. There is no mistake in this. If we build roads we will be the richest people in the world. If we don't we'll be the poorest. Two ways are before us; which will we choose?

But it is asked, how can we build roads? Let me reply by other questions. How can we do without them? Who will buy our lands? and if we can't sell our lands, how will we ever get out of debt?

But where there is a will there is a way. We can build roads if we try.

Allow me to suggest one plan. Suppose we take the Comptroller's Books and ascertain the assessed value of the real estate of every county and corporation in the State, and then pass an act of Assembly allowing each county and corporation to subscribe one tenth of its nett value, —that is, of its assessed value over its existing debts, to any railroad or canal which it may select. Allow bonds to be issued for such subscriptions, of small denomination, receivable for all State dues and fundable at the option of the holder of, say, $50's worth or more, in stock of the work for which issued, and let the bonds run say for twenty or thirty years, and bear a small interest.

To prevent frauds, the bonds could all be issued by the State, for the corporation concerned, on a common plate, the lettering only being peculiar in each case.

This would only be risking a tenth of what we are worth to save all; this plan would give us a circulating medium, and if many counties were to engage in it, the State would soon be covered over with a net work of commercial arteries, our dead lands would come to life, and our cash valuation be five times what it is now.

Oct. 17, 1866. N. C.

The Raleigh Station.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The winter will now soon be upon us, and it behooves us all to prepare for it. The City of Raleigh is interested in having suitable and adequate accommodations, not on expensive but economical scale, for our travelling public. We here call the attention of the two railway Companies, the "Raleigh & Gaston" and "North Carolina," to the shameful condition that the Raleigh Station is now, and has been left in, during the past eighteen months by both these Companies.

We believe the charters of both these Companies require the requisite and customary houses to be erected at the different stations. These houses are intended for freight, which after paying the toll, all have the right to send and receive, and for the convenience and accommodation of travellers, after they have purchased tickets of transportation. There is now no protection from the weather, day or night, at the Raleigh station.

This is an injury, not only to the two roads abovementioned, their individual stockholders, but also to the stockholder, the State, and a serious inconvenience to her citizens, who may choose to use their privilege, for their own purposes, after complying with regulations of the two roads. These Companies were expressly chartered for these objects by the Legislature of North Carolina.

Raleigh, the Capital of the State, and by far the largest town on the line of either road, has, by far, the most indifferent railway accommodations. The Legislature will meet in a short time, and of course this will greatly add to the numbers of the travelling public next winter, and calls urgently upon the Companies for the usual accommodations and protection from the inclemencies of the season.

The Companies also having appropriated certain streets of the city, for their own chartered purposes, should assuredly keep them in much better condition. And we hope the Mayor of Raleigh will at the least assist in making the street next the station passable, which, during the winter, it cannot be said to be truthfully.

Messrs. Editors, these are evils peculiary falling under the province of the City Press.—There is no politics here, thank God, and we desire, solely for the benefit of the City and the general public, that the other papers shall unite with us in these absolutely pertinent remarks, earnestly urge them promptly to be heeded and attended to, forthwith, before the winter in severity comes upon us.

Public opinion can surely force a railway company simply to do that which it is their bounden duty to perform, and it is better for them, the State, and the whole travelling community, and the City of Raleigh besides.

THREE TRAVELLERS.

The Constitutional Amendment—The New York "Times."

We submit it to those Northern papers that profess liberal and conservative views, whether some of them are not pursuing, at this time, a course which is particularly unkind and injurious to the South, and discreditable to themselves, in reference to the adoption of the so-called Constitutional Amendment. We put the question especially to the New York Times.—That paper will pardon us for saying, that its recent course has been inexplicable here, on the principles which determine the obligations of fidelity among men. The conviction has been forced upon our people,—very reluctantly, too,—that the conductor of the Times is not one who, in the language of John Bright, it is "safe to hunt bears with." And now when it persistently urges upon us a course, which itself has discredited, and when it charges us with contumacy, and puts us under sentence of odium and persecution, if we neglect to do a certrain thing that we feel to be wrong, and which the Times has taught us will be useless, we ask how it can do so in connection with professions of amity?

It has been again and again admitted and asserted, by generous minded men of the North, that the Southern people cannot adopt the Constitutional amendment without personal dishonor and infamy. We may possibly be mistaken in our recollection, that Mr. Raymond is among those who have made this assertion.—Certain it is, it has been the general opinion of those with whom he has until recently acted.—And it is well known that this is the opinion, virtually unanimous, at the South. What the North may choose to do and ordain of itself, in the violence of uncontrollable power and unchastened passion, is one thing. To acts of such character, we have shown that we know how to submit with manly endurance, as a part of the fortune of war, and as violations of the Constitutional compact of which the responsibility is on others. But when we are commanded not merely to submit, but to approve by our votes; when it is demanded of us not merely to abide an arbitrary sentence, but to affirm that it is righteous; when we are mocked by requiring of us the impossibility of electing according to order; and when it is exacted of us that we shall vote our own infamy; it is an outrage upon humanity, it is a grossness of tyranny, not witnessed since the days of barbaric despotism. It would be, if possible, more disgraceful thus to approve and endorse than thus to exact. The South has positively no election before her, unless, indeed, what it is impossible to suppose—she shall discard all sense of honor. This, as we have said, has been admitted and proclaimed by Mr. Raymond, or at least by his coadjutors.

And why are we now urged to do this impossible thing? Some tell us to do it in order to secure "a settlement" of the question of reconstruction; that the South needs not expect better terms; that if we do not accept these, we will have to put up with worse, &c., &c. This is the argument and the persuasion held out to us. These are the inducements which are to engage us in self-outrage. But if the reward were sufficient,—if any reward could be sufficient to compensate for self-disgrace,—we put it to Mr. Raymond, we put it to Mr. Bennett, or to any others of those who have ever given us a reason to suppose that their sentiments towards the South were not of unmixed prejudice and hate,—where is any guarantee of the consideration? Where is any promise of it?—Where is any reason to expect it? Where is any plausible room to hope for it?

The New York Times recently contained a demonstration, that there was no pledge in existence that the adoption of the Amendment would re-admit the South and end the present anarchy; that there was no respectable commitment to that effect; that the House of Representatives had on the contrary expressly rejected a declaration of that purport; that the prominent Republican leaders have protested against being held to any such idea. And this view of the Times is sustained by abundant other proofs. Gen. Butler, who is one of the idols of the party at this time, and who, as usual in idolatry, is worshipped with a fervor proportioned to his monstrosity, expressly declares that he repudiates the amendment as a finality. The abolition publication called "The Right Way," has, with a frankness at least which we can appreciate, sent us a marked editorial expressing the same purpose. And the New York Independent testifies thus broadly:

"We know personally every prominent member of Congress, and we know that the leaders do not mean to admit the unadmitted States on the mere adoption of the amendment. Moreover, we know personally the leading Radicals of the Republican party outside of Congress, and we know that they have no intention of making the amendment the final measure of admission. To say, therefore, as the National Committee say, that, on condition of adopting the amendment as Tennessee adopted it, 'the door stands invitingly open for the ten other States,' is to make a promise to the ear to break it to the hope."

Are we to be required to pay something for nothing? Nay, are we to be urged to pay such a price as everlasting shame and infamy for an expectation less substantial than the mist?—Among the horrid atrocities that have made the name of Jeffrey a stench for all time, it is related that he demanded of a fair suppliant the yielding of her virtue as the price of a pardon for her brother, then under doom of death.—Sisterly devotion triumphed over other sentiments, and the demand, worse than death, was submitted to. To show how vainly the terrible ransom had been paid, she was led next morning to a window, from which she was pointed to a gibbet from which was suspended the body of the brother to save whom she had more than died! This example from English history teaches us that those who exact humiliations are not of those who keep promises. But in our case, though an equal infamy is proposed, no man can point to even a promise of reward.

It is admitted indeed that there is no promise. We are even plainly warned that there is no promise. Nay, more, there is express repudiation, and an express declaration that the course held up to our hopes will not be pursued. We are thus required by Mr. Raymond, and those who counsel with him, to swallow a naked hook,—to bite without even a bait,—to sell ourselves for nought,—to put our honor, which is all that is left us, on the wildest and most improbable of ventures, nay, to buy with it a blank. Is this the advice of a friend?—if so, could an avowed enemy be a worse one?

Nor is this all, nor is this the worst, in the conduct of our advisers. While persuading us to do what they have declared we cannot do without disgrace,—and while holding up as the inducement, what they have admitted there is no promise, but on the contrary an open refusal, to give us in recompense,—they denounce us as deserving prosecution if we delay to embrace the gratuitous infamy! This is to take the most effective means of uniting the North in a hunt against us. To charge us with contumacy under such circumstances, and to unite to inflict evil upon us therefor, is unmanly and treacherous in the last degree, so it appears to us, at the South.

If Mr. Raymond really thinks the Southern States ought to adopt the Amendment as the condition of reconstruction, he ought first to secure such an offer to us. To call on us, day after day, to accept what has never been offered, nay, what he himself says has been refused, is nothing less than absurd. To threaten us with dire evils for not thus accepting, is something much worse than absurd;—it is cruel, nay, it is satanic. If the agreement were proposed to us by competent parties, and were thus placed in our option, it would be time enough for the Times, if it thinks we ought to accept it, to berate us for not doing so. But to start us, under awful threats, on a mere wild-goose-chase after reconstruction, throwing self-respect and shame to the dogs, with not even the light of an ignis fatuus to lure us on, and with nothing but failure and disgrace as our reward,—surely this is incomprehensible counsel from a friend!

After the closest analysis we can make of the persuasions to the South to ratify the amendment, the only one of the least weight is that it would give the Conservatives at the North a new argument with which to oppose the extreme Radicals, which they hope would avail to carry a majority of the people. That is the whole strength of the reasoning in favor of the course recommended to us—that and no more. Is the inducement sufficient? Jeffrey's victim had a positive promise—are we to pay an equal price for a mere makeweight, where far stronger arguments have proved ineffectual?—Richmond Enquirer.

As an instance of the manner in which the present unsettled condition of the Southern States retards the development of their internal resources, it may be stated that several gentlemen, acting as the agents of French capitalists, have been for some time in the city for the purpose of investing large sums in various Virginia enterprises; among others the construction of the James River canal to the Kanawha, thus affording an additional transportation route from the mineral region in West Virginia. They are unwilling, however, to conclude negotiations until the future status of the States lately in rebellion shall be positively determined; and unless some speedy solution of the matter is attained, they will doubtless return to Europe.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Gen. Banks talks about the Radicals having "enemies in the rear." The chivalric Banks had plenty of enemies in his rear, when he turned tail, and, at the head of his forces, ran for life from the far interior forces of Dick Taylor. He should be known in history as the Banks of the Red River.—Louisville Journal.

TO TEACHERS.

The Trustees of the Oxford Female Academy desire to make arrangements with a competent teacher, to take charge of that institution, at the close of the present year. It is pleasantly situated in the town of Oxford, in one of the most healthful sections of the State; it has been in successful operation for more than fifty years, and has perhaps educated more young ladies than any other similar institution in the State.

The trustees will make liberal terms with a competent teacher, who can come well recommended.

Applications will be received until the 10th. day of November next, when a choice will be made.

MRS. RANSOM'S SEMINARY,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THE buildings being completed and my teachers having arrived, I have opened my Seminary for Girls and Young Ladies near the corner of Third and Orange streets, Wilmington, N. C.

Everything will be taught which can be desired in the thorough education of a lady.

It will be to the advantage of all, that the pupils be entered as early as possible.

Owing to the scarcity of money, my tuition in the English studies will be seventy-five dollars, and in the Primary Department fifty dollars per year.

For further particulars apply to the Principal.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—New and attractive arrivals: W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Isaac Hollingsworth, Fayetteville, N. C., Dealer in Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery, &c., announces Beard's Patent Lock-Tie for cotton bales, hay, &c. This is pronounced a most useful and desirable invention, meeting all necessary requirements. Send in your orders to Mr. Hollingsworth.

Mrs. H. W. Miller's residence, in the North-eastern portion of the city, is for rent. This is one of the most desirable residences in Raleigh. Apply on the premises.

Texas Land Agency: W. L. Alexander, Quitman, Texas. Mr. Alexander furnishes the highest references, and will promptly and faithfully attend to all business entrusted to his care.

Dr. J. H. Crawford, Surgeon Dentist, has returned to the city, and will resume his professional duties.

THE ELECTION, on yesterday, was conducted with an entire absence of excitement. The friends of the various candidates for the Legislature were active and energetic, but we heard of no unpleasant occurrences. The county vote was unusually small, and the crowd on our streets was at no time large enough perceptibly to alter their every day appearance.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The officers of this Association and the President's Council, are requested to meet at the Cemetery grounds, donated by Henry Mordecai, Esq., on to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 4½ o'clock.

A MEETING of the Stockholders of the Raleigh Manufacturing Company, as well as of the friends of the enterprize, is respectfully requested at the room of the Directors of the Raleigh National Bank, to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Business of importance is to be transacted. A full and prompt attendance, especially of Stockholders, is desired.

TO THE RAILROAD COMPANIES.—Our correspondent, "Three Travellers," puts in an earnest plea to the Railroad Companies to "mend their ways" at the Central Depot. That plea is backed by the universal desire of the public and the necessities of the case. The appeal cannot be in vain to public spirited gentlemen like the Presidents and Superintendents of the two Roads, and we will endorse for them that they will promptly execute the orders of the Boards of Directors of the two Roads, without which they cannot act. We beg, therefore, the early attention of the Directors of both Roads to the subject.

PAPER MILL.—Messrs. L. W. Glazebrook and Wm. B. Allegre have bought out the interest of Mr. Nat Tyler in the paper mill near Forestville, in this county, and intend to make it a first class establishment. This is the largest mill of the kind in the South, and we are satisfied that the gentlemen above named will manage it in the most efficient and successful manner. The paper upon which the Sentinel is printed is manufactured at this mill, and, as our readers will doubtless testify, is of superior quality.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

FREEDMEN IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Bureau report for September, on Freedmen's affairs in this State, states that there was issued to Freedmen in that month 25,302 rations. The number of schools for the negroes is 19; teachers 20; scholars, 1,487. The average wages for freedmen are, for males, $9.75 per month; for females, $5.35. The opinion is expressed that, if the issue of rations be stopped during this month as ordered, (and as it has been,) many blacks will die of starvation, as neither the municipal, county nor State authorities are able to make any provision for their support.

WINSTON SENTINEL.—Capt. Geo. M. Mathes has been associated with J. W. Alspaugh, Esq. in the editorial management of this paper. Capt. Mathes was a gallant officer in the Confederate army and is said to be a gentleman of fine talents. All success!

MILITIA.—The 72nd Regiment N. C. Militia was organized in Stokes, on the 8th. inst., by the election of James Martin, Colonel, H. W. Rierson, Lieutenant-Colonel, and S. B. Zeglar, Major.

DIRECT TRADE WITH LIVERPOOL.—We are pleased to learn that the steamship Melita will load at Norfolk, for Liverpool direct, about the middle of November. The rates of freight will be very reasonable, of which announcement will be made in good time.

THE TAX ON COTTON.—The Hon. Reverdy Johnson, confessedly one of the most eminent constitutional lawyers in the Union, in reply to an interrogatory of the Hon. Chas. I. Scott, of Wilcox County, Alabama, expresses the opinion that the tax of three cents imposed by Congress on cotton is unconstitutional. He further declares the opinion that the Supreme Court will so decide, when the matter is brought before it, as, it is understood, it will be at its next Term.

GENERAL NEWS.

The New York Tribune pronounces Ristori's Queen Elizabeth the greatest piece of acting on the modern stage.

The Georgia railroad has just reduced the rates of freight on guano to fifteen cents per one hundred pounds.

Sambo and Rose become more and more meddled to the idea day by day, that they must "set up on their own hook." No farther back than yesterday, I heard an aged negress reply to a lady who desired her services next year as a cook, "that she could not get them;" and then with an impudent toss of the head, she added, "what's de use of bein' free if I got to work for white folks all my life?" And this is the idea which seems to have seized upon the great majority of the unfortunate race.

A Paris tradesman announces that a five franc gold piece is secreted in one of every hundred sausages exposed for sale in his shop. The demand for sausage is something extraordinary.

"What sort of a sermon do you like," said Dr. Rush to Robert Morris, one day. "I like, sir," replied Mr. Morris, "that kind of preaching which drives a man into the corner of his pew, and makes him think the devil is after him."

The Chicago papers tell of a dog that was taken from that vicinity across the Plains to California, but did'nt like that country and footed it back to his old home, a very emaciated puppy.

The Mayor of Lynchburg was caught riding upon the sidewalk by a policeman, who reported him to the Mayor. The Mayor heard the evidence, and fined himself one dollar.

A young lady riding in a car on the Susquehanna railroad, was suddenly assaulted very violently the other day by an old lady in the seat behind her, who tore the waterfall from the young lady's head, threw it on the floor, and commenced stamping on it. The young lady was at first disposed to resent this treatment, but it was soon explained to her that her waterfall was on fire when the old lady seized it. She was sitting by the open window, and a spark from the locomotive had lighted in her back hair, and would have burned it up had not assistance been thus promptly rendered.

The New York World says, jocularly, that an arrangement has been made with Mr. Raymond to speak for each of the two parties, on alternate days, till election. We dare say he will deceive them by being Democratic on the Radical days, and vice versa.

The victories of General Mejia, who commands under Maximilian, have retrieved the fortunes of the Empire on the lines of the Rio Grande, where the arms of Maximilian are now supreme. Monterey and Matamoras are occupied by the French.

Horace Greeley has been nominated for Congress by the Radicals of New York.

John Van Buren was returning from a tour in Scotland in search of health, but was taken with inflammation of the kidneys which became worse during the voyage home, and finally proved fatal on Saturday morning, while the vessel was off Cape Race. His daughter and niece were with him.

The canvass in Western Virginia is getting active. Boreman, Radical candidate, refuses to meet Smith, Conservative, in discussion.

The Elections—Conservative Gains.

The election returns are still incomplete. The radical majority in Pennsylvania, as we predicted, is materialy whittled down as the official returns come in, and the probability now is that it will not much, if any, exceed twelve thousand. The conservatives, therefore, have gained something near 8,000 upon the majority against them in the last presidential election—that gain being more than equal to the majority against McClellan in New York in 1864. In Ohio the conservative gain has been still more decisive. Lincoln's majority was 59,586, but at the recent election, when the vote was apparently as heavy as in '64, the radicals have not obtained more than 40,000 majority. Indiana shows a somewhat similar result. Lincoln's majority in that State, in 1864, was 20,189, and now that majority has been reduced below 15,000. The conservatives also gain a member of Congress in Indiana, as well as one in Ohio. We have not yet received sufficient returns from Iowa to form a near estimate of the result, but there is no doubt, judging from our advices, that the radicals have also lost in that State. The majority for Lincoln in 1864 in Iowa, was 40,523, and the radical majority now is not likely to reach 35,000. In all the States, therefore, which held elections this month, the conservatives have made substantial gains upon the vote at the last presidential election.—N. Y. Sun, Independent.

Ruling Passion Strong in Death.

Old Boge was a miserly old fellow, who had accumulated great wealth by life-long penuriousness. But even misers have to die some time, and old Boge was at length called upon to pay that debt which all must pay, and which is paid as easily by the man who has'nt a cent as by the possessor of millions.

Old Boge was sick unto death, finding a partial recompense in his sufferings from the reflection that if he could not cat anything, something was being saved. His physician told him that his end was rapidly approaching, and as he felt within himself that he was rapidly approaching his end it was evident to old Boge that he must meet his end very soon.

"How long have I to live?" asked old Boge in a faint voice.

"Only half an hour," said the physician, taking out his watch in a business-like manner, and added, "is there any one you wish to send for, a clergyman for instance?"

Old boge mused in a lethargic way for a moment, then started up as with a sudden thought, raised his feeble hand and felt of his emaciated chin, upon which two week's growth of gray and stubbed beard had grown, then whispered hurriedly, "quick—bring me a barber."

The barber came with his kit, and old Boge said, in a voice that was rapidly growing weaker:

"You—charge—ten—cents—to—shave—live men?"

"Yes, sir, that is our price," replied the barber.

"What—you—charge—to shave—dead—men?"

"One dollar," said the barber, wondering what he meant.

"Then—shave—me—quick!" replied old Boge, nervously eyeing the watch which the doctor held in his hand. He was too weak to speak further, but the doctor interpreted aright the question that was in his eye.

"Fifteen minutes," replied the doctor.

Old Boge made a feeble motion as with a lather brush, and the barber was at his work in a jiffy. He performed his task with neatness and dispatch, and although the sick man had several sinking spells of an alarming nature, yet he bore up to the end. When the last stroke of the razor was given, old Boge whispered in tones of satisfaction: "That'll do—ninety cents—saved!" and immediately expired.

Radical Demonstration in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.

A large Republican ratification meeting was held last night at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Prominent Radicals delivered speeches, assailing the private and public character of President Johnson, and earnestly urging on the people the importance of the adoption of the Howard amendment as a security for the future. A series of resolutions, expressive of those principles and ratifying the Republican nominees of this State, was unanimously adopted.

Thomas H. Benton, in his "Thirty Years in the United States Senate," speaking of the attachment which a man has for his native State, calls it "the affection which none but the wicked ever lose for the land of their birth." This is true. How a man can malign, abuse, seek to oppress, or be willing to subjugate, subdue, oppress, or injure his native State, or his kith and kin, is one of the mysteries of the human mind which we cannot and do not wish to unravel. It is against nature; it is against every instinct and feeling that belong to common humanity. And yet we have lived in times when we have seen this most unnatural phase of character developed in its worst forms.—Alexandria Gazette.

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
114 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegiate Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
